The funeral of Moses Mason will be held at 2:30 today.

The funeral of Samuel Stevens will be held at 2:30 Thursday.

There are 46 students at the University of Maine law school.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Carpenter of Brooks are in Bangor Tuesday.

The falling of the snow signed the death warrant of many a fat piggy.

In some of the Maine towns they are taking up mayoralty candidates already.

There are many claimants for the honor of having had the first sleigh ride this year.

If that big meteoric shower doesn't come soon some people will be too worn out with watching to enjoy it.

Dr. G. M. Woodcock went to Augusta Tuesday to attend a meeting of the State Medical Board of Registration, of which he is a member.

The funeral of the late James Lynch, whose death occurred Tuesday morning, it is thought, will be held from St. John's Catholic church Thursday morning at 8:30 o'clock.

The conductor of Mr. Frank L. Richardson, who nearly lost his life Sunday by being lost in the woods about eight miles from Bangor, is considerably improved and will be out of doors the last of this week or the first of next week.

LIVELY FOOT BALL.

The Thornton-Bangor Game on Saturday Will be the Big Game of the Season.

Next Saturday afternoon the Thornton Academy foot ball team of Saco and the Bangor high school eleven will meet in Bangor and it will be the big game of the season in this city, taking the place of the Portland game. That it will be a close and exciting struggle there is no doubt and if the weather is at all favorable the crowd in attendance is sure to be a big one.

The first game between these teams played at Saco on Nov. 4 was won by Thornton 18 to 15, but the contest was practically a tie, each team making three touch-downs. Thornton being more fortunate in the goals. The Bangor boys will put forth every effort to win Saturday, and a fine game may be expected.

The Bangor eleven has been hard at work this week at Maplewood park and will undoubtedly play the game of their lives next Saturday.

WHIG'S PRIZE STORIES.

Competitors Must Have Their Papers in Early.

Competitors for the Whig's short story prize must have their stories in as early as possible and not later than Friday morning.

The winner of last week's prize will be announced next Saturday under our juvenile story department.

Oriental Goods

Such as MALCOOF is showing at

E. C. NICHOLS

Dry Goods Co.'s Store

A beautiful collection of ORIENTAL JEWELRY, including belt buckles, hats, hair pins, lucky stone rings, etc., offered a tempting variety for the selection of XMAS GIFTS. Every piece of this Oriental jewelry has been selected with great care and thought and cannot be duplicated in the city.

RICH PERSIAN and TURKISH RUGS, the beautiful draperies of Damascus (hand woven), Dainty and Delicate Embroideries of Turkey are shown in almost entirety.

Malcoof's home is beautiful with some of these goods. An article on this collection is an addition to any house.

MALCOOF is always ready and anxious to show his goods and explain how, when and where each was made.

Come early and make a selection for some Christmas gift.

and Miss Katherine Adams' neutrals. The collection will be of most pleasing quality, as the artists are well known as excellent entertainers. A fine program will be presented and it is probable that a large audience will attend.

MR. EDWARDS' CASE.

The following letter, received Tuesday, presents Mr. Edwards' side of the case of his trouble in Mexico, with his opinion of some of the people and peculiarities of that region:

Tejocito de Patzcuaro, Nov. 6, 1899.

Hon. C. A. Boutelle:

Dear Sir:—I received a letter from my brother telling me of your judgment in my case. I am much obliged to you for prompt action stopped the Mexican who were near the point of killing me. I was handling a train that carried passengers, when a strange Mexican tried to steal a very important part of the machinery. I tried to stop him; he struck me on the head and knocked me down, defending myself from him. I got to Patzcuaro under arrest, there putting charge of assault and robbery. The Jeff-Palito took him, turned him loose and had me arrested, they called witness against him, saying he struck me and I defended and struck him with the machinery in his hand. I was sent to prison and he released. After it days I was allowed out on bail, but they attempted to kill me before releasing me and I escaped. Finally by liberating the inmates, I got out. I have been in prison since, about two weeks before now, never having been so completely cornered, if there had been much delay they certainly would have killed me.

I hope next year I may have the pleasure of thanking you personally for your kind and prompt action in this ugly affair. While there is still some talk of me from the Mexican people, the Americans yet when they get one of them in their power completely forget Scott and forget Maximilian.

Yours respectfully with kindest regards,

W. G. Edwards.

OLDTOWN LOCALS.

Mr. Knowlton has returned from Foxcroft, where he passed Sunday.

Mr. Geo. Hathorn returned Tuesday from a hunting trip up river, bringing home a nice deer.

Aber McPeters, the well-known guide, has returned from Kineo, where he has been with several hunting parties this fall, who have secured some of the finest deer heads seen in this vicinity for a long time.

An order passed to construct a crosswalk across Cumbridge Street at its junction with Market street.

A ordinance was passed to prohibit throwing banana peels or other like substances on the sidewalks and to prohibit sweeping the dust of the sidewalk into the eyes of pedestrians or scattering refuse of any kind in the annoyance and discomfort of the passing crowd.

An ordinance passed repealing the ordinance passed April 1st prohibiting for licensing peddlars on the market square.

An order passed to pay back to J. L. Ellingwood the amount of his license, he being the only one to whom license has been issued.

THE SPANISH CANNON.

A letter from Congressman Boutelle to the mayor, presenting to the city a bronze cannon secured as a trophy of the late war with Spain, was read by Mayor Chapin and ordered on file. It was as follows:

Bangor, Me., Oct. 16th '99.

Hon. Arthur Chapin, Mayor of the City of Bangor.

My dear Mayor:

At the close of the recent war, in Cuban waters during a survey of Guantanamo Bay, I directed Lt. Commander Frank F. Fletcher, U. S. N. commanding U. S. S. Eagle, to recover some bronze cannon that had been dismounted from Fort Torro when it was shelled by the "Marblehead" and "Texas" and brought them north to the U. S. Navy Yard at Washington, D. C., and deposited there.

A special piece of the choicest and most expensive pieces of Japanese goods now on sale at 191 Exchange street will be held on Thursday, Nov. 16, at 2:30 P. M.

Y. M. C. A.

Annual Meeting Held On Tuesday Evening.

At the annual meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association at the association rooms Tuesday evening the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—Joseph G. Blake.

Vice-President—E. F. Rich, Wm. L. Miller, A. C. Sawyer, James A. Boardman, J. G. James, E. L. Brann, H. F. Sargent, B. D. Thatch, Marsh, Hardy, L. F. Higgins, George C. Williams, G. H. Bartlett, W. T. G. W. R. Hart.

Treasurer—George W. E. Barrows.

Recording Secretary—W. A. Taylor.

The reports of the various committees were read, showing an increase in the efficiency of the association.

The treasurer made report that through persistent effort on the part of the finance committee the treasury books at six o'clock Tuesday evening had all plus paid and seventy cents on hand.

ON TRIAL FOR HIS LIFE.

Roland B. Molineux, charged with the death of Mrs. Katherine Adams, Again Before the Court in New York.

New York, Nov. 14. Roland B. Molineux was put on trial for his life today in the court of general sessions before Recorder Gott, charged with the death of Mrs. Katherine J. Adams on Dec. 25, 1898.

No case more famous, or promising more startling disclosures has ever been tried in New York city.

When the case was called up this morning, Bartow S. Weeks, counsel for Molineux, put in a final and desperate effort to have it removed to the supreme court, but the recorder ordered the trial to proceed. Mr. Weeks also made a lengthy argument on a motion to dismiss the indictment, but Recorder Gott told him his talk was trivial, and that he was wasting time.

Whereas the Hon. C. A. Boutelle, member of Congress from the Fourth Congressional District, has, by his letter of presentation to the mayor, donated to the city of Bangor a bronze cannon dismounted from Fort Torro, disengaged from the Spanish during the recent war with Spain and recovered as trophy, therefore,

Resolved, That the city of Bangor accepts with profound gratitude this interesting and historic gift.

Resolved, That in accepting this gift, Hon. C. A. Boutelle, tends to the city to grant him such sum of money as he desires to express its sense of obligation to him for this gift of great historic value.

An order was passed appointing a special committee of two Aldermen with as many of the Common Council as possible, with full power to select a suitable site and to mount in a substantial and appropriate manner the cannon presented to the city. Aldermen Drummond and O'Brien and Councilmen Stewart and Grant were appointed on the committee with the mayor added thereto.

OLDTOWN PEOPLE INDIGNANT.

(Special to Whig and Courier.)

Oldtown, Nov. 14. Friends of the Oldtown High school foot ball team think it only justifiable to the boys of the team to contradict some statements made by the correspondents of Bangor papers relative to the game played at Bucksport Saturday. The correspondent from Bucksport says: "The Oldtowners are all smart boys, some heavier than the E. M. C. S." The fact is conceded that they are smart for their weight shows that and even more so as regards weight the Bucksport correspondents was very much out of the way. Although the E. M. C. S. shaded their weight they averaged over 9 pounds per man heavier and are a much older crowd. Notwithstanding these serious handicaps the Oldtowners won from their first game and would have had a different story to tell had the ground been properly lined out last Saturday, as in the last half with a score of 12 to 17 in favor of the E. M. C. S. the ball was off the goal posts.

The chief engineer and city electrician reported back upon the position of the S. A. Marfield's for a fire alarm box at the wool factory, that they did not care to assume the responsibility of placing the alarm box as authorized, without further information as to whose objections had been raised to the placement of the alarm box.

OVERSTOCKED AND BOUND TO UNLOAD

—that is the cry of the large manufacturing houses at present. The late deliveries from the mills, and last month's unseasonable weather caused many cancellations, on account of which the manufacturers of Men's and Boys' Clothing are overstocked. The result is that all are striving most strenuously to dispose of this overstock to large cash buyers at a tremendous sacrifice. Last week we took our pick, buying the most desirable Suits and Overcoats at prices which do not ordinarily prevail until the very end of the season. That is why we offer our customers the very cream of this season's production, at prices hardly covering the cost of cloth and trimmings.

Kentucky Complications.

The political situation in Kentucky is causing no end of heartburning in the Democratic party. In the first place Mr. Bryan, after weighing all the conditions carefully concluded that Goebel would be elected, and regardless of the appeals of many of his warm friends decided to stamp the State for the regular ticket regularly made. That was mistake number one on his part. Having cast his lot with Goebel the first mistake was easily followed by another when he telegraphed his congratulations to Goebel on his election.

It appears, however, that Goebel was not elected and the people of Kentucky seem disposed to prevent him from stealing a certificate to the Governor's chair, this apparently being the present occupation of the man who is now carrying around in his pocket the congratulatory dispatch from Mr. Bryan.

But Mr. Bryan is not the only man who finds that his allegiance to Goebel has developed boomerang tendencies. Mr. Blackburn who was endorsed for the Senate by the same convention that nominated Goebel has been laboring zealously to make votes for the Democratic candidate for Governor. In his speech he even went so far as to say that he did not want to go to the Senate unless "William Goebel can sign my commission." This was a bit of gallantry intended to awaken the enthusiasm of the audience and it never failed to bring forth cheers. But now Goebel has been beaten and the friends of Blackburn are troub'led. Goebel has long entertained Senatorial aspirations and the Governor's chair was merely intended as a stepping stone to gratify his higher ambition. The men elected to the Legislature on the Democratic ticket are his followers and it is feared that he may decide to throw himself into the field against Blackburn. Should this prove the case the speeches of Blackburn above referred to could and would be used with great effect, as it would be argued that the Legislature was simply taking Mr. Blackburn at his word.

Under these conditions Messrs. Bryan and Blackburn are not as fond of Goebel as they were.

The Republican Campaign.

In a recent interview Col. McClellan, editor of the Philadelphia Times, said I regret the election just over as one of the clearest-cut strategic moves ever made in the arena of American politics. As a military general like Napoleon or Grant would plan a campaign the Republican managers planned theirs and their opponents marched into the meshes of their tactical manœuvres, with the natural result.

As it appears now when the figures can be compared and differences drawn, the Republicans started out to hold Ohio in order to establish McKinley as their nominee and to lose Nebraska hoping to insure the nomination of Bryan by the Democrats.

So far as Ohio is concerned, our favorite citizen received an overwhelming endorsement of his administration and his policy.

Analyze the vote in Nebraska and the point is clear. In Omaha there were 8000 registered Republican voters, 3200 registered Democrats and Populists, and 3000 registered without preferences indicated, showing a majority of nearly two thousand Republicans over all. As shown by the figures the Republicans should have carried Nebraska by 3000 to 6000 majority at least.

The vote, therefore, is unaccountable when compared with the registry. There can be no other inference than that the State was given to Bryan in order to encourage his nomination on the old platform, so that there can be no doubt as to the success of the Republican ticket next year.

This view is strengthened by the fact that Iowa, adjoining, influenced by the same conditions and interested in the same interests, went Republican, as usual, with a swell.

Watch the movements in the future. It is a big game on the board of politics.

The Republicans have scored the first vantage of position for 1900. We have no war what they call grand tactics. We have just finished the first move in what may be called grand politics.

It is impossible to tell so soon what will be done by the present management of the Democratic party, but we can put this down, if they put Bryan at the head of the Democratic National ticket in 1896, they will not carry a single State east of the Mississippi and north of the Ohio. They might by a fusion carry a few States, unimportant in number of electoral votes, west of the Mississippi, where free silver is a local issue, but they will lose at least one-third of the States of the South.

The Republicans on a platform of expansion and sound money have carried Kentucky, no matter what may happen on technicalities or through high-handed measures often resorted to by desperate characters. Whatever may be the outcome, it is evident that Bryan has been repudiated in Kentucky. With Bryan at the head of the Democratic ticket next year, there is at any rate fighting chance for the Republicans in the Democratic strongholds of the South.

The pliant management of Maryland Democratic politics and this State was kicked out of the shadow by the Maryland convention, and South was selected against a Republican nominee who was personally strong and who had made an excellent governor.

If the Democratic nominees proposed to walk into the Washington door, they can do so with little difficulty.

John H. Ward, Dem.

WHERE THE WARSHIP STICKS.

Washington, Nov. 14. There is a discrepancy in the date of the wreck of the Charlottesville, as given by Admiral Watson's official report and in the press despatches. It is probable that the seventh instant is correct and Admiral Watson's despatch was confused in transmission. That so long a time elapsed after the wreck before the news reached the navy department was due to the isolated position of the wreck. Kamagui Island is a small island lying west of Apamia Island, the most northerly point of the island of Luzon, and the nearest land to the coast of China.

The news was communicated with the White House and then by direction of the secretary of the navy, over, over at once, arriving a copy of the Star. The navy department had already a communication to the effect that the Charlottesville had been lost.

The last meeting of the Methobee Club, of Rockland, was one of unexampled interest, owing to the fact that it was a sort of Rockland day. An interesting sketch of the city's history was read by Mrs. Isabel McLeod, some of Rockland's needs while Mrs. Steagus gave a paper descriptive of the work of the Rockland Hospital, a carefully prepared article of exceeding interest. Mrs. M. E. Westworth recited a poem on "Rockland." Club colors, of green and white, were selected, together with a motto. "To learn and to help." At the next meeting Mrs. Anna Clever, Downs will deliver a lecture on "Concord."

Boers Demand the Release of An Alleged Spy—Cruiser Charleston Ashore—Maj. Logan Killed—Condensed News.

London, Nov. 14. A special despatch from Cape Town dated Friday, Nov. 10, says that State Secretary Reitz has demanded that Gen. White immediately release the supposed spy, Nathan Marks, who is confined at Ladysmith, coupling the demand with a threat to execute six British officers.

Gen. Butler replied, according to the special despatch, that he was entitled to retain this man until he should render a satisfactory account of himself.

URGE THAT KRUGER BE HANGED.

London, Nov. 14. Nothing is known either at the war office or the colonial office here regarding the alleged official statement cabled from Cape Town saying that State Secretary Reitz in behalf of the Transvaal government has demanded, that Gen. White immediately release Nathan Marks, a supposed spy, who is confined at Ladysmith, adding that President Kruger threatens if Marks is executed to retaliate by shooting six British officers now in the hands of the Boers. It is further asserted from Cape Town that Marks entered Ladysmith after the investment of that place with the supposed object of obtaining information for the Boers, and one version of the story is that the Transvaal authorities had threatened to execute six British officers if the supposed spy is not released. Gen. Butler is said to have replied that the British were entitled to retain this man until he shall render a satisfactory account of himself.

Washington, Nov. 14. The following was received at the navy department from Admiral Watson Tuesday:

DEATH OF MAJ. LOGAN.

Washington, Nov. 14. Cable despatched received by the war department announce that Major John A. Logan, 33d volunteer Infantry, has been killed in a fight in Luzon. He was leading his battalion in action.

"DIED LEADING A CHARGE.

Washington, Nov. 14. The following despatch received from Gen. Olis under date of Manila today confirms the report of the death of Major Gen. Logan:

"Wheaton reports Nov. 12 there was an engagement near San Jacinto between the 33d volunteers and 1200 entrenched insurgents. Our loss, Major Logan, while gallantly leading battalion and six enlisted men, wounded, mostly slight. The enemy was routed, leaving 81 dead in the trenches. The loss is believed to be 300. Watson reports from San Jose that in the vicinity of San Nicholas north of Tayug, vessels captured 13 carts with the insurgents who were captured, of which division they were originally assigned to.

"There is no doubt that the bombardment of Ladysmith has increased in intensity during the last few days and although all messages from there speak of the confidence of the defenders, a load of anxiety will be removed from the country when unrestrained communication with the beleaguered town is established. The gallant Major Logan, however, has done a disservice to the credit of the non-combatant, ignorant of real military importance. Nevertheless his story has added immensely to the anxiety of those who had relatives at the battle of Nicholson's Nek, as they now have the dread of dishonoring exposure."

Considerable interest has been aroused by the announcement that Sir William Butler, former commander of the capes, will not command the forces sent to the occasion of the king's visit to Britain.

As Gen. Butler commands the western distriict, his absence from the ceremony is remarkable, and is attributed to fears of a hostile demonstration, owing to his unpopular attitude with reference to the Transvaal.

It is reported that the officials at Cape Town are not stopping all foreign officials telegrams, whether in code or otherwise, except messages to the governor of Portuguese East Africa and Portugal.

It is officially announced that the postmaster general of Cape Colony, no foreign despatch, either in secret code or cipher can be transmitted via the Cape except messages between Portugal and the general officer of Lourenco Marques.

STILL SHILLING LADYSMITH.

Petermaritzburg, Friday, Nov. 10. Morning. It is officially stated that the long range bombardment of Ladysmith with heavy guns continues daily but without serious damage.

THE CHARLESTON ASHORE.

Manila, Nov. 14. 12:35 P. M. The U. S. cruiser Charleston has run aground near Vigan on a hidden reef. She has 55 fathoms of water on both sides. She worked her machinery for two days and nights trying to get afloat, but the typhoon arising, the crew were compelled to take to the boats and seek refuge on a small island five miles away. The natives are friendly. Lieut. McDonald and a number of sailors put off in a small boat to reach the Calao, which brought them to Manila. The gunboat Cassard has been despatched to bring up the crew.

Major McDonald describes the Charleston as he last saw her as hard and fast aground with her bottom badly stove and well out of water.

ADMIRAL WATSON'S REPORT.

Washington, Nov. 14. Admiral Watson cables to the navy department the following official report of the wreck of the cruiser Charleston:

"Manila, Nov. 14. Charleston uncharted coral reefs three miles northwest of Guinapin rock, northeast of Luzon, 5:30 morning, on Nov. 2. Everybody safely landed. Kamagui Island armed with rifles and two Coats Natives friendly. McDonald made Lingayen gulf in sailing launch. When he left no opportunity for anchorage, he took a reef, which he avoided, heavy sea prevailing. Corroso ship struck early, then thundered violently; fire room compartment flooded; ship has settled aft, water and foot from name. Well out of water forward; apparently very steep bank; ten days' provisions, one-half rations landed. Helms damaged from Lingayen by Oregon to Kamagui, did today."

Photographs of the Jeffries-Jones fight are perfect. Every move of the gladiators, as they struggled and dollars, is shown with wonder. The pictures will run for a few days at the New York O'Rourke. In speaking of the battle, John Howard, the old colonel, said: "I do not anticipate a long and weary bout; three rounds will be enough." The schedule has repeated the rounds.

On the other hand, Jeffries' manager says: "It is not certain that Jeffries will be a surprise to many who have never heard of either Jeffries or Sharkey, and his services of a boxer to prevent them burning up this money." Jeffries, however, has a little the better of that kind of argument. You don't find many champions like John L. Sullivan with their sons, and perhaps they are right.

Tom Williams was the champion heavyweight (140 pounds) pugilist of Boston when he was matched with Mysterious Billy Smith in this country. It was just at the time that the class now recognized as welterweight was introduced by Captain A. W. Cooke, the eminent sporting authority, for the welterweight championship of the world at 140 pounds which was won by Jeffries. The clause covering the championship of the world was inserted in the articles of the Coney Island Club and was signed by B. H. Smith in Captain Cooke's office in New York. Th. S. is author.

Lagrange street: Boston.—Your letter came to hand too late to use among the others who have expressed their opinion about the big fish, given in Sunday's columns. I invited opinions, but in your article you say that you are not sure what you make of it, you really believe that duttons oppose to yours are wrong. Remember, so far as you did not see the fish; and you have no real palpitations of sporting writers all over the country.

Pitons of boxing are wondering whether there is a likelihood of Young Griff showing any of his old form, for it is on the card that he is to renew his career as a boxer. This marvellous boxing wonder has spent many months in an insane asylum in Illinois and has just been released through the efforts of his faithful friend, George Dawson, the popular boxing instructor of the Chicago Athletic Club. It is said that "Griff" has recovered his mental faculties, but is still lacking in physical strength. Reports state that he has lost his original boxing phenomenon, recovering his lost physical powers. George Dawson has assumed the task of bringing Griff back to something like his old self and has him out of the way of temptation, has sent him to Carlisle, Penn., to recuperate. Here Griff will locate for a few months and will devote his time to general health and training with the Carlisle Indian football team. The hopes are that "Griff" will be able to resume operations as a fighter next spring, but I expect to beat him out with his big brush and red paint at any time.

Kil Lavigne has been matched again, and is booked to box Young Kenny in Chicago six rounds in three weeks.

James Keley and J. Smith fought bare knuckles for 6 hours 15 minutes in Australia, November 1855.

Eddie Connolly is willing to make another match with Matty McHugh if the latter will agree to settle at 133 to 135 pounds.

After agreeing to box Gus Ruhle for six rounds in Philadelphia last week, Bob has a small but great head, and does not have to put "wise" to the fact that Ruhle is different goods to Jeff Thorpe.

At the time Dave Sullivan and a game fought a draw. This went twenty rounds at the Hotel, on Friday night, with Corbett was knocked down with Shurkey, although the former says he only 5000 persons, and the other newspapers in the city are having a plague of young. It strikes all over.

Shurkey does not fight.

McGoy has returned to New York and is running at White Plains for his meeting with Peter Maher. He sends no very interesting letter, which will be of importance to persons who want a limit of the coming fight.

It is on the third that Will Curley and Terry McGovern will be matched. If these two come together it will give the talent a line on which to go for the Boston-McGovern fight in January.—E. B. Weston, Rob Roy, in Boston Post.

BICYCLE NOTES.

As a direct result of the suspension of Chief Consul Charles W. Mears of Ohio, the editor of the racing board of the L. A. W. Chief Consul Frank F. Van Valkenburgh of the Wisconsin division has resigned his membership. Mr. Mears was tried recently at Pittsburgh, and the only finding against him was that he had served as an official at an N. C. A. race meet at Waltham.

Mears had previously commented severely in the Cycling Gazette, of which he is editor, on the racing of the N. C. A. W. and it is an open secret that the two were preferred to "shut Mears up." At the trial Chief Consul Van Valkenburgh was Mears' counsel, and upon the verdict being given announced his intention of resigning his membership, and has sent a letter of resignation to Secretary Bennett of Boston.

Both have been leaders of the anti-racing element in the L. A. W., and the statement from the national assembly is given as a reason for strengthening the hands of the racing heart. On the other hand, it is the result of the influence of

In a recent race at Paris, Jacquelin, the French sprinter, rode a paced 40-mile race against Hurst, one of the most noted middle and long-distance runners of Europe. Jacquelin covered the 31 miles 123 yards in 53 minutes 19 seconds, winning the race. His time was an average of 1:43 for each mile, or at the rate of a little more than 34 miles in the hour.

The campaign in the Massachusetts division of the C. R. C. has developed into a batch of postal cards. The first issued appeared to be in the interest of Messrs. Knights and Pedge, and purported to be signed by thirty members of the division. So many of the members whose names appeared denied that their names were used without their authority that Messrs. Knights and Pedge have secured signatures to another postal card to the above effect. Both sides claim to have secured enough votes to win. There are 133 members requiring 73 to win.

Messrs. Churchill and Pearson of North Cambridge made their usual century yesterday, in spite of the heavy wind and snow squalls. They rode out through Waltham, Weston, Wayland and Sudbury for the first 50 miles and made out 100 miles by a circuit through Waltham.

PLAYS AND PLAYERS.

Miss Julia Marlowe pursues the even tenor of a successful way in "Barbara Freethie" at the Criterion Theatre. The coming week will bring the first month of the run to a close, with every prospect that several other months will be piled up before the record is complete.

John Drew and his company continue to play "The Tyranny of Tears" at the Empire Theatre. He is usually prosperous in Horse Show week, and doubtless he will be so this time, although, for the matter, he has been so all along.

Henry Miller and his company will play "The Only Way" for only one week more at the Garden Theatre. Richard Mansfield will begin a limited engagement next week, opening in his success of last season, "Cyrano de Bergerac." The production is new and on the same scale as last year.

All the seats at the Garrick Theatre have been filled every night since William Gillette began his engagement in "Sherlock Holmes." A long run is promised for the play.

The Donnelly Stock Company, at the Murray Hill, will this week revive Hallom Chambers and G. B. C. Stevenson's drama, "The Fatal Card," which had a successful run at Wallack's Theatre some years ago.

Two weeks more of "Children of the Ghetto" at the Herald Square Theatre, and then "The Zangwill Play" will be transported bodily to the Adelphi Theatre, in London, where it will open on December 2.

Miss May Irwin is still at the Bijou in "Sister Mary." The public seems to be appreciating Miss Irwin in full measure as it has ever done before. No film has been set for the length of her run.

The biography of Keith's is going to attempt a remarkable thing. It is to reproduce pictures of actual war. Two commissions have been sent with photographs of photographic apparatus, one to the Philippines and the other to South Africa. The commission to the Philippines arrived in Manila two weeks ago with orders to take some pictures in order that they may go to the front. It has permission from the military authorities to go anywhere and to photograph the battles. The other commission was called from Southampton with Sir Redvers Buller, and carries a special permit from the War Office to enable him to go to the front. He is directed to take pictures of the fights with the Boers at any risk and at any cost.

Mr. Broadhurst's latest piece, "Why Shouldn't Home," comes from Harriet Beecher Stowe, with the original company from the Madison Square Theatre. It has enjoyed a long run there and will doubtless have a prosperous week in Brooklyn.

"In Gay Paree" has been received like a new performance at the New York Theatre, so great is the change from its Casino days. The new piece by Edgar Smith will remain until the new piece goes on, toward the end of the month.

Claire Lottus heads the bill at Proctor's Twenty-third Street Theatre this week, and also heads this week's program at Mr. Proctor's ornate new house, the Palace. She will play at 8 o'clock and 10 o'clock, and the other acts will be presented at 10 o'clock.

Kircher of the North Shore team is rolling a great game, due to the advice of his trainer, Peter E. Kelley.

GOLF NOTES.

The third round for the November cup at the Concord Gold Club will be played Saturday, 18 holes, medal play.

The Oakley County Club of Watertown will hold a kickers' handicap Saturday next.

Mrs. G. H. Francis of the Country Club has offered medals for an open handicap to be played Wednesday, in addition to the mixed tournaments. The entries include Mrs. Zerrah, Miss Julian, Bacon, Miss Keys and Miss Fliske.

The Country Club's annual cables' tour-nament will be held some time this month. The club carries number nearly 80, and some of them are excellent players.

The Salem Golf Club has decided to lengthen its course giving a playing distance for 9 holes of some 2600 yards. Several new bunkers will be built and the greens enlarged.

Miss M. Alice Macumber has won the silver cup presented to the Framingham Golf Club by Colonel Charles Plant.

The Newton Center Golf Club is considering changing its course near Langley road. The new course, which is now Institution Hill, near Parker street, will be 2 holes between 600 and 700 yards longer than the present course.

Newton's new club, the Shorncliffe, has started play on a 3-hole course on the east side of Farlow hill. Next season the course will be lengthened.

Another victory for Timmy Karras. He is very close to championship form and will keep improving.

Lowell, is loading timber at the Ashland Manufacturing Company's dock. The William L. Walker has finished discharging her cargo of coal and will probably sail in a day or two for a coal port, light.

At some time during Monday night the fire pipe at the Prescott Furniture Co.'s store burst, and Tuesday morning it was discovered that there were several small springs of water bubbling up into Central street, and that the cellar of the store was flooded to the depth of three or four inches. Inspector M. A. Sinclair at once set a crew of men at work and the break was repaired by noon.

One of David Bugbee & Co.'s windows, attracted a great deal of attention Tuesday on account of its novel decorations, which consisted of large pieces of pure bark, the edges of which are surrounded by pine spalls and cones very artistically arranged. In the foreground is a large picture of Rudyard Kipling and also a large mounted fal in a glass case, the whole thing taken together gives a very pretty effect and reflects much credit upon Mr. Casey as a testy window-trimmer.

A party of about 25 Masons from this city will go to Kenduskeag tonight to attend the Masonic meeting that is to be held there. A special car has been chartered on the Penobscot Central road and those who are planning on going anticipate a grand time. The Kenduskeag Lodge members have made arrangements for an excellent entertainment and doubtless the Bangor party will enjoy themselves immensely.

Showers caused several runaways on Tuesday, as they always do at the beginning of the season, when the horses about town were unaccustomed to snow. Tuesday morning a horse standing in front of Esabrook's sporting goods store on Har-

SURE TO ASK

The Kind of Coffee Where Postum is Well Made.

"Three great coffee drinkers were my old school friend and her two daughters. They are always complaining and taking medicine. I determined to give them Postum Food Coffee instead of coffee when they were ill, without saying anything to them about it. I made a big pot of Postum the first morning, using four heaping teaspoons to the pint of water, and let it boil twenty minutes, stirring down occasionally.

"For the meal was half over, each one reached up to be refilled, remarking how fine the coffee was. The mother asked for a third cup and asked as to the brand of coffee I used. I didn't answer her question just then, for I had heard her say a while before that she didn't care for Postum Food Coffee unless it was more than an old fashioned coffee."

"After breakfast I told her that the coffee she liked so well at breakfast was pure Postum Food Coffee, and the reason that is, it was boiled long enough to bring out the flavor. I have been brought up from a child, was declared invalid to a fine condition of physical health by leaving off coffee and using Postum Food coffee."

"I am doing all I can to help the world out of coffee slavery, to Postum freedom, and hope to win the gratitude of many, many friends." — Eva Fay, Tupper, Mass.

Winter Meet at Newport, Thursday and Friday—Fine Program Arranged—Large Attendance Expected.

Congressman Boutelle is Informing a Whig Reporter Why He Did Not Officially At Senator Frye's Lecture.

Congressman Boutelle took the night train Tuesday for Boston. To a Whig representative he stated that he had expected to start Monday, and in consequence thereof, and as the mission was an important one, had notified the committee in charge of Senator Frye's lecture at Central church of his expected absence, and requested them to make other arrangements in regard to introducing the Senator. Later he was advised that it would not be necessary for him to leave home before Tuesday; but, presuming that the committee had acted upon his request, and being engaged with important preparations for his absence, had remained at home. He added that his personal relations with the Senator are of the most cordial nature, and any impression that he would commit any breach of courtesy toward him is entirely erroneous.

MUNICIPAL COURT.

Cases Before Judge Vose on Tuesday.

In the municipal court on Tuesday, Martin Timmins and William Beck of Bangor were sentenced to 30 days' each in the county jail for drunkenness. John Noble of Enfield was fined $3 and costs and paid.

In the afternoon Judge Vose heard a civil suit. In this case Mary A. Smith of Oldtown sued her husband, Jedidiah Smith, for the support and maintenance of herself and children who she claims have been deserted by the husband. Smith in his defense claimed that his wife had absented herself to such a degree that he could not live with her safely. After hearing the evidence, which was brief, through the most of the afternoon, the judge rendered his decision, which was in favor of the plaintiff, awarding her $11 a month for support of herself and children. Clarence Scott, Esq., of Oldtown, appeared for the defendant.

NARROW ESCAPE.

Team Backs Over the Wharf Into the River and the Driver Was Nearly Drowned.

On Tuesday forenoon there was a narrow escape from a bad accident near Smith's mill. A team which belongs to Mr. George Smith, and which transfers corn from the stanchions to the mill to be ground was being backed down to the mill, it having a load of whole corn. The horses could not hold the load on the incline and the horses and team were over the edge of the wharf into the river. The driver, Mr. Miller, got them into the water and made a desperate effort to save the drowning. He was rescued and received needed medical attendance. The horses were saved but the wagon and team accounts were still in the river.
